

GLSD hosted a wastewater operator on November 17th as part of MAWEA's Operator Exchange Program. Keith Anderson of the Saco, Maine Wastewater Treatment Plant and John Downey, Past President of the MAWEA, toured GLSD's main treatment facility and pumping station. The Operator Exchange Program expands the knowledge of operators throughout the Northeast by facilitating tours at treatment facilities with varying capacities and treatment systems.